2013 AMERICAN LEAGUE CENTRAL DIVISION CHAMPIONS

The Detroit Tigers made franchise history in 2013. With a 93-69 record, the club captured its third consecutive American League Central Division crown and advanced to the postseason for the third time in as many years. It marked the first time in franchise history the club won three consecutive division titles, and second time the team has ever advanced to the postseason in three straight seasons. With their defeat of the Oakland Athletics in five games during the American League Division Series, the Tigers became the first club to advance to the American League Championship Series in three consecutive seasons since the New York Yankees did so in four straight seasons from 1998-2001. The Tigers eventually fell to the Boston Red Sox during a tightly contested six-game American League Championship Series.

The Tigers advanced to the postseason behind a strong combination of pitching and offense. In 2013, Tigers pitchers struck out 1,428 batters to establish a new Major League record for most strikeouts in a season. Anibal Sanchez, Max Scherzer and Justin Verlander each fanned 200-or-more batters, becoming just the third trio in major league history to each surpass 200 strikeouts. Behind the performances of a strong starting five, the Tigers finished third in the American League with a 3.61 ERA.

Max Scherzer anchored the Tigers pitching staff, leading the major leagues with 21 wins on the season, while he was second with 240 strikeouts and fifth with a 2.90 ERA. Scherzer established a new franchise record for a starter, winning 13 straight decisions to begin the season, and was named the 2013 winner of the American League Cy Young Award, as voted on by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He is the fourth pitcher in franchise history to capture the American League Cy Young Award and first since Justin Verlander in 2011.

Fellow starter Anibal Sanchez put together a stellar year in his first full season with the Tigers. He posted a 2.57 ERA to capture the American League ERA crown for the first time in his career.

Justin Verlander was selected to the American League's All-Star squad for the sixth time in his career after finishing fourth in the American League in both strikeouts and innings pitched. For the fifth consecutive season, Verlander struck out 200-or-more batters and pitched 200-or-more innings for the Tigers. He also earned the decisive win in a dominating Game Five performance against the Oakland Athletics in the American League Division Series for the second year in a row.

At the plate, the Tigers led the American League with a .283 batting average, 1,625 hits, and a .446 on-base percentage. The .283 average is the highest for a Tigers club since 2007. The powerful combination of Miguel Cabrera and Prince Fielder became the seventh duo in Tigers history to each surpass 25-or-more home runs and drive in 100-or-more RBI in a season.

Miguel Cabrera once again led the Tigers offense, capturing his third consecutive American League batting crown in 2013. Cabrera led the American League with a .348 average, a .442 on-base percentage and a .636 slugging percentage, while he was second with 44 home runs, 137 RBI and 353 total bases, and tied for second wtih 103 runs scored and 193 hits. Despite battling injury throughout the second half of the season, Cabrera put up incredible numbers and earned his second straight American League Most Valuable Player Award as voted on by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He is the first American League player to win back-to-back MVP Awards since Frank Thomas did so in 1993 and 1994 with the Chicago White Sox. He also earned his eighth All-Star Game appearance, and was elected by the fans to start the game for the first time in his career.

Veteran outfielder Torii Hunter reached several milestones in his first year with the Tigers, knocking his 2,000th career hit on April 9, appearing in his 2,000th career game on June 6, and hitting his 300th career home run on June 16. Hunter led the American League with 17 game-winning RBI, and made his fifth career All-Star team and first with the Tigers.

Victor Martinez returned to the Tigers lineup in 2013 after missing all of 2012 with microfracture surgery and repairs to both the medial and lateral meniscus in his left knee. After struggling in the first half of the season, Martinez turned it on after the All-Star Break, leading the American League with a .361 batting average. His success continued into October where he led the Tigers offense with a .405 batting average during the postseason.

Jose Iglesias proved to be a spark for the Tigers in the second half of the season. Acquired just prior to the trade deadline, Iglesias solidified the left side of the Tigers infield, making spectacular defensive plays as the club's shortstop. His speed proved a valuable asset for the Tigers, as he led the American League with 35 infield hits, while he was tied for second with 10 bunt hits.

The Tigers captured the American League Central Division Crown on September 25 in Minnesota to advance to the postseason. The Tigers once again squared off against the Oakland Athletics during the American League Division Series. After winning the first game on the heels of a stellar pitching performance by Max Scherzer, the Tigers lost the next two games, and trailed 3-0 in the fifth inning of Game Four. Home runs by Victor Martinez and Jhonny Peralta, coupled with a gutsy two-inning relief appearance by Game One winner Max Scherzer, forced a decisive Game Five in Oakland. Justin Verlander once again took the hill and dominated the A's, striking out 10 and allowing no runs and two hits in eight innings of work to deliver the Tigers to the American League Championship Series.

For the first time in history, the Tigers faced off against the Boston Red Sox in the postseason. The Tigers captured Game One of the American League Championship Series in Boston behind a strikeout laden performance by Anibal Sanchez, but lost Games Two and Three in heartbreaking fashion on late-inning home runs. The Tigers won a critical Game Four to even the series, but dropped close contests in Games Five and Six, and were eliminated from the postseason.

Manager of the 2013 club, Jim Leyland, became the first Tigers skipper in franchise history to lead the team to four postseason appearances, and joined Hughie Jennings as the only two Tigers managers to guide the club to three consecutive postseason appearances.

MIGUEL CABRERA CAPTURES SECOND CONSECUTIVE MVP AWARD

For the second consecutive year, Miguel Cabrera captured the American League's top honor: The Most Valuable Player Award, as voted on by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Despite battling a serious injury throughout the second half of the season, Cabrera led the American League with a .348 batting average, a .442 on-base percentage and a .636 slugging percentage, while he was tied for first with 37 go-ahead RBI, second with 44 home runs, 137 RBI and 353 total bases, tied for second with 103 runs scored and 193 hits, third with 90 walks, and ninth with 52 multi-hit games. With a .348 batting average, Cabrera captured his third straight American League batting title, becoming the first Tigers player to win back-to-back-to-back batting crowns since Ty Cobb did so from 1917-1919.

Cabrera is just the seventh player in American League history to capture back-to-back MVP Awards, joining Frank Thomas (1993-1994), Roger Maris (1960-1961), Mickey Mantle (1956-1957), Yogi Berra (1954-1955), Hal Newhouser (1944-1945), and Jimmie Foxx (1932-1933). Five of those sixe players have been elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. Cabrera also joins Hal Newhouser as the only two players in Tigers history to capture consecutive Most Valuable Player Awards.

A fearsome offensive force throughout the season, Cabrera racked up the accolades during the offseason: He was named the 2013 Player of the Year and American League Outstanding Player in voting conducted by his peers for the Players Choice Awards. Cabrera was also named Player of the Year by The Sporting News, and was given the Hank Aaron Award as the American League's top hitter. He was also awarded the Silver Slugger Award for being the top offensive third baseman in the American League.

During his two combined MVP seasons, Cabrera leads the majors with 398 hits, 88 home runs, 276 RBI, a .338 batting average, and a .626 slugging percentage, while he is second with 212 runs scored, and a .417 on-base percentage.

Since joining the Tigers in 2008, Cabrera leads the American League with 615 runs scored, 1,153 hits, 227 home runs, 737 RBI, and a .588 slugging percentage, while he is second with 477 walks, a .327 batting average and a .407 on-base percentage. He has recorded 100-or-more RBI in each of his first six seasons with the Tigers, joining Harry Heilmann (1923-29) as the only two players in franchise history to record 100-or-more RBI in six-or-more straight seasons with the club.

With Cabrera's MVP win in 2013, the Tigers have won each of the past three American League MVP awards.

MAX SCHERZER WINS FIRST CY YOUNG AWARD

After completing one of the winningest seasons in franchise history, Max Scherzer was named the American League Cy Young Award winner in voting conducted by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Scherzer led the American League with 21 wins and an .875 winning percentage, while he was second with 240 strikeouts, 10.08 strikeouts per nine innings, 25 quality starts, and a .198 batting average against, fifth with a 2.90 ERA, and tied for fifth with 214.1 innings pitched.

By winning the Cy Young Award in 2013, Scherzer became just the fourth pitcher in franchise history to take home a pitcher's top honors. He joins Denny McLain, who captured the award in both 1968 and 1969, Guillermo Hernandez who won during the Tigers World Championship season of 1984, and Justin Verlander, who took home both the Cy Young and MVP Awards in 2011.

Scherzer began the 2013 season by winning each of his first 13 decisions for the Tigers. His first loss came just days before the All-Star Break on July 13 against the Texas Rangers. His streak of 13 straight decisions without suffering a loss to begin a season is the longest such streak by a Tigers starter in the history of the franchise.

Max Scherzer's hot start was fueled in part by his incredible strikeout totals. During his first 18 starts of the season, Scherzer struck out six-or-more batters in each outing. His 18-game streak is the second-longest such streak in American League history, trailing only Pedro Martinez's 29-game streak of six-or-more strikeouts to begin the 2000 season.

On September 15 vs. Kansas City Scherzer pitched the 1,000th inning of his Major League Career. At the time, he had already accumulated 71 wins and 1,045 strikeouts in his career. The only other pitcher in Major League history to have more wins and strikeouts through 1,000 career innings pitched is Pedro Martinez, who had 71 wins and 1,075 strikeouts through his first 1,000 career innings.

For his dominating performance on the mound in 2013, Scherzer was named the 2013 American League Outstanding Pitcher in voting conducted by his peers for the Players Choice Awards. He was also named "King Tiger" by the Mayo Smith Society for both his performance on the field, and his off-field charitable endeavors.

Over the past two seasons, Scherzer leads the major leagues with 37 wins and a .787 winning percentage, while he is second with 471 strikeouts.

Tigers President, CEO and General Manager David Dombrowski accepts the 2013 Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence from Commissioner Alan "Bud" Selig.

On November 12, 2013 Tigers President, CEO and General Manager David Dombrowski accepted the Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence, which was created to recognize the charitable and philanthropic efforts of MLB clubs, on behalf of the Detroit Tigers for the club's anti-bullying program.

"On behalf of team owner Michael Ilitch and the Detroit Tigers organization, we are honored to receive the 2013 Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence," said Tigers President CEO and General Manager, David Dombrowski. "This award is an acknowledgement of the Tigers steadfast commitment as a social insitution. The prevalence of bullying in the lives of today's children is astonishing, and the resulting effect on its victims is frightening. We are especially proud to be part of the movement to prevent bullying and humbled to be recognized for our efforts."

According to research done by Bully Police USA, one in five students in Michigan are bullied, and the devastating effects of bullying among youth in the community are becoming more apparent. As a result of the epidemic of bullying in schools, the Tigers launched the Detroit Tigers Anti-Bullying program, a free state-wide educational program designed to help students and teachers manage the issue of bullying in schools. Since its inception in 2011, the program has reached nearly a quarter of a million young people in 90% of counties throughout the state of Michigan. The Detroit Tigers Foundation, an affiliate of Ilitch Charities received a $10,000 grant from Major League Baseball as part of the award.

The Detroit Tigers and the Detroit Tigers Foundation partnered with Michigan K.I.D.S and the Newspapers in Education programs to develop "Strike Out Bullying", a component of the Detroit Tigers Anti-Bullying program that provides students and educators with tools to address and manage the issue of bullying in schools through a baseball-themed educational supplement.

Tigers players and executives are doing their part as well. Alex Avila, Miguel Cabrera, Phil Coke, Jose Iglesias and Austin Jackson have all spoken out against bullying. Tigers representatives have also participated in a Midwest National Task Force hearing on Children Exposed to Violence.

Recently, the state of Michigan successfully passed Anti-Bullying legislation and achieved an A++ rating from Bully Police USA. The Tigers are proud to support the elimination of bullying from schools throughout Michigan, but there is still more work to be done. No one person, or organization can strike out bullying. It is a team effort. To learn more about the Detroit Tigers commitment to prevent bullying, visit tigers.com.

MICHAEL ILITCH

OWNER/DIRECTOR

A proven leader in the sports, food and entertainment industries, Michael Ilitch enters his 22nd full season as Owner/Director of the Detroit Tigers.

- Under his stewardship, the Tigers have made two World Series appearances; captured two American League Championships; and are currently three-time defending American League Central Division champions, the only time in franchise history this feat has been accomplished.
- He was a driving force behind the creation of the Tigers spectacular new home, Comerica Park, in 2000 and contributed more than 60 percent of the financing for the over $300 million facility.
- Served a key role in designing the ballpark, bringing years of entertainment experience that resulted in many of the features that make Comerica Park a unique destination.
- Conceptualized and funded the redesign of Comerica Park's suites and the new high definition video board, the largest of its type in the state of Michigan, following the 2011 season.
- Ilitch's acquisition of the Tigers on August 26, 1992 was the culmination of a long association with the club that began when he signed a minor league player's contract with the organization in his early 20s...his playing career was cut short due to an injury his fourth season with the club.
- Founded Little Caesars Pizza in 1959 with his wife, Marian…Little Caesars, now the third largest pizza chain in the world, celebrates 55 years in business in 2014.
- The Ilitches purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982 and have built the franchise into an elite NHL powerhouse with four Stanley Cup titles under their ownership.
- Along with the Red Wings, purchased Olympia Arenas, Inc. (renamed Olympia Entertainment in 1996), which manages restaurants, sports and entertainment venues in Detroit.
- While many businesses were leaving Detroit, the Ilitches purchased the neglected Fox Theatre, an iconic landmark on the famous Woodward Avenue...with great effort, the building was restored to its original 1928 splendor and was reopened in 1988…the 5,000 seat theatre continues to attract audiences with a wide range of quality entertainment and is an anchor of a now vibrant sports and entertainment district in Detroit.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first major league Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

ALL-STAR GAME HISTORY

July 8, 1941
American League 7, National League 5

Detroit hosted the ninth All-Star Game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in all-star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a Midsummer Classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and an RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with an RBI.

National League 8, American League 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th All-Star Game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped an All-Star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in all-star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing a new all-star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive all-star games. Stan Musial also established a new all-star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

AMERICAN LEAGUE 6, NATIONAL LEAGUE 4

The All-Star Game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched an All-Star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Frank Robinson was named as the game's most valuable player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in All-Star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game playing right field in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

The All-Star Game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in All-Star Games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing 2x3 with a pair of singles and an RBI.

Andruw Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee, Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.

Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked two scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Tejada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th All-Star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished 0x1 with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

TIGERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

TY COBB — CF, 1905-26

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1936
Ht./Wt.: 6-1/175
Born: 12/18/1886 in Narrows, GA
Full Name: Tyrus Raymond Cobb
Nickname: "The Georgia Peach"
Batted/Threw: L/R
Died: 7/17/61 in Atlanta, GA

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame... garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in major league history.
- Major league record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years and single-season major league record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the major league record for career runs scored (2,245) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (297) and fourth in doubles (724) and stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tigers teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400-or-better three times (.420, 1911; .410, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in major league history...one of just two players (Rogers Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Chalmers Award winner (American League Most Valuable Player) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- From 1907-20, won the league batting title in 12 out of 14 seasons.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and from 1907-11, led the league in RBI in four of the five years.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both major leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), en route to leading the Tigers to the last of his three World Series appearances.

SPARKY'S LEGACY HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

On July 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor.

Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises. Additionally, he was the first manager to lead teams from both leagues to a World Series title and to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues.

The Tigers retired Anderson's number 11 as part of a ceremony on June 26, 2011.

WALKING-OFF WITH THREE WINS

The Tigers ended three straight games June 26-29, 2004 with walk-off home runs by Eric Munson, Carlos Pena and Dmitri Young, marking the first time the club has done so in three consecutive games since September 17-19, 1998. During that three-game stretch, Damion Easley homered in the first and third games, while Tony Clark accomplished the feat in the middle game. Additionally, Pena's walk-off grand slam on June 27 versus Arizona was the first by a Tigers player since Lou Whitaker connected off Cleveland's Derek Lilliquist on June 21, 1994.

DETROIT TIGERS OLDE ENGLISH 'D'

The Detroit Tigers Olde English 'D' is one of the most revered emblems in Major League Baseball. It was first stitched on the away uniform in 1904, only three years after the team had joined the newly formed American League. The following year, the Olde English 'D' was stitched on the home uniform as well and also appeared on the baseball cap. Through the years the 'D' has undergone various stylizations, but the pride this symbol brings to the team and its fans has been constant.

LOWRY REMEMBERED WITH TIGERS MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Detroit Tigers family suffered a tragic loss during the 1997 season when Jamestown Jammers manager Dwight Lowry collapsed and died suddenly at his home in Jamestown, NY, on July 10.

Shortly after Lowry's death, the Tigers renamed their annual Player Development Man of the Year Award in his honor.

Lowry, who was 39 at the time of his death, had been tabbed the club's inaugural Player Development Man of the Year in 1996 after leading the Single A Fayetteville Generals to a second-half division title and a South Atlantic League post-season berth.

Lowry was in his fourth season as a manager in the Tigers minor league system and he had also spent parts of four seasons as a player with Detroit, including the 1984 World Championship campaign. Lowry is survived by his wife Pamela and children Sesilie, Amanda and Zachary.

HOW THEY BECAME KNOWN AS "TIGERS"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tigers nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

Joker Marchant Stadium and TigerTown
Spring Training Home of the Detroit Tigers

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2014 for their 78th season in Lakeland and their 49th at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In January 2001, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 16 additional years.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000 and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100 and the recently completed renovation project upped the capacity to 9,000. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972 and a food and picnic court that was added in 1994 to increase the fan appeal of Joker Marchant Stadium.The recent $11 million renovation project has transformed the park into a state of the art facility that features luxury suites, a second tier concourse level, new seating areas, an outfield seating berm, as well as brand new individual seats with cupholders and improved seating for handicapped fans. The improvements continued to the exterior of the park with the extensive use of Mediterranean style architecture. The press box has been improved and expanded, a new practice field has been added, as well as four new indoor batting cages.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is TigerTown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the TigerTown renovation.

Several changes were also made to the clubhouse building at Marchant Stadium during the 1997-98 off-season. Three executive offices and a large suite were added to the complex as well as offices for both the home and visiting managers. The locker room and laundry areas were also expanded at that time.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Marchant Stadium is 382-302-22 and 3,498,065 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

Fetzer Hall and TigerTown Facilities

While the Tigers major league club has trained in Lakeland since 1934, the organization's minor league affiliates have called Lakeland home since 1953. The move to the TigerTown facility in 1953 was aided by the use of barracks that were originally part of the Lodwick School of Aeronautics, a British training school for aviation cadets during World War II. The school closed in August, 1945 and was converted to a city airport, which was later named Lodwick Field. The barracks from the former training school allowed the team to provide room and board for players throughout Spring Training.

The original setup at Lodwick Field boasted four diamonds, a fieldhouse, recreation room and a dining hall, which was said to have served nearly 16,000 meals during Spring Training in 1953. The field provided the club with an all-encompassing facility that could serve the needs of the minor league system during Spring Training. When the facility opened in 1953, the club owned three minor league affiliates and had working agreements with four other clubs. The 1953 Detroit Tigers Press Book stated that 200 rookies would be given the opportunity to display their wares in the first minor league spring training held at what is now the TigerTown complex.

Player housing on site at the TigerTown complex continued in the barracks through the 1970 season, when the club, in conjunction with the City of Lakeland, began construction on Fetzer Hall at a cost of $425,000. Touted as boasting the last word in construction with air conditioning, controlled heating and carpeted rooms, the dormitory was designed to house nearly 200 players and coaches during the baseball season.

The facility was completed during the summer of 1970 and dedicated in 1971. It was named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. The Tigers added an administration building, cafeteria and recreation center in 1993 to expand the TigerTown facility.

Fetzer Hall and the surrounding facilities underwent a $1 million renovation prior to the 2008 season. The renovation upgraded the dormitory rooms, lounge areas, recreational areas and the cafeteria. Each room is equipped with a flat screen television and high-speed Internet access. Lounge areas feature large screen televisions and couches for players to relax.

Each room in Fetzer Hall is named for a different part of Tigers history. Rooms on the first floor are named after Tigers Hall of Fame players. Rooms on the second floor are named after noteworthy Tigers coaches and managers and the third floor rooms are named after different parts of TigerTown history.

What began as simple housing accomodations in former military barracks has given way to a facility that helps provide players with many of the comforts of home while allowing them to stay in close proximity to top notch training facilities. The advancement from Lodwick Field and military barracks to the current TigerTown facility and Fetzer Hall has helped the Tigers maintain one of the top minor league headquarters in baseball.

COMERICA PARK INFORMATION

COMERICA PARK
HOME OF THE DETROIT TIGERS

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the storied franchises in the history of Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit that features a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for fans of all ages.

AN URBAN VILLAGE

Comerica Park is rooted at the center of an urban village that includes shops, restaurants, offices, the neighboring Ford Field, Fox Theatre and other attractions. Buildings of varying sizes and heights make up this village of outbuildings which houses many of the service facilities surrounding the park. Roughly 70,000 square feet of retail space is included and another 36,000 square feet is dedicated to Tigers offices. The result blends into the surrounding street life of Foxtown. Comerica Park provides a beautiful view of the Detroit skyline which is highlighted by the Renaissance Center, Detroit Athletic Club and many Detroit landmarks.

THE CONCOURSES

The concourses are among the most generous of any facility. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, with wider concourses in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

Touring the main concourse, fans are taken through time on a tour of baseball and lifestyle history. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed along the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring artifacts from each era.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the “Brushfire Grill” barbecue area behind third base and the “Big Cat Court” food area behind first base, with a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies.

THE SCOREBOARD

One of the newest and most stunning features at Comerica Park is the massive High Definition LED video board in left field. The Daktronics board measures approximately 48 feet high and 127 feet wide and utilizes the latest in LED technology, offering excellent clarity and contrast of video images. In addition to the main board, a five-foot high and 100-foot wide LED display is positioned beneath the main board to provide pitcher statistics and other information. The state-of-the-art technology continues on top of the board with a script Tigers logo which utilizes LED technology to allow the lettering to change color and be animated for special events throughout the season.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the food court, a merry-go-round is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Behind the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area stands a baseball-themed ferris wheel. The stunning fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park and 2,000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 12,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. The first five rows of the upper bowl have been designated as club seats, and patrons have access to the Club Lounge. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two levels of suites, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for guests who enter Comerica Park.

THE TEAM

The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Sumitomo Bank, Limited, Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. Public financing participants include the Michigan Strategic Fund (infrastructure), City of Detroit Downtown Development Authority and Wayne County.

MOMENTS IN COMERICA PARK HISTORY

Comerica Park is entering its 15th season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Despite such a short history, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth all-star game in Detroit and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League 7-5 behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a major league record by belting 24 home runs in the first round and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK

After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first playoff game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006. The Tigers defeated the Yankees 6-0 and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

MAGGLIO ORDONEZ BELTS HISTORIC HOME RUN TO SEND TIGERS TO THE FALL CLASSIC

Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordonez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street delivery into the Detroit sky for a game-ending three-run home run that propelled the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL AT COMERICA PARK

The Tigers have appeared in the World Series twice since Comerica Park opened in 2000. The Tigers split two games with the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2006 World Series and lost both games to the San Francisco Giants in the 2012 World Series at Comerica Park.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007 in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952 at Briggs Stadium.

The Detroit Tigers Jackie Robinson Art, Essay and Poetry Contest invites middle and high school students to create poems, essays and works of art to honor the athlete who broke the barrier of segregation in baseball, and a social activist who fought for equal opportunities beyond the playing field.

TIGERS WINTER CARAVAN

For a few special days each January, Tigers players coaches, broadcasters and front office staff hit the road for the Tigers Winter Caravan to visit fans throughout the state of Michigan. While supporting numerous communities and organizations, Tigers personnel can be found reading to children, spending time with kids in the hospital, and visiting local firehouses and police stations. The event provides opportunities to promote Tigers baseball prior to the 2014 season. Each year the Tigers Winter Caravan makes nearly 40 stops over two days, touching the lives of thousands of Tigers fans.
